Welcome to Wellington International

Wellington International is considered the most recognizable equestrian sporting venue in North America. Often called the ‘Winter Equestrian Capital of the World,’ Wellington International is nestled in the heart of an almost 8,000-acre equestrian paradise, Wellington Florida. Each year, the venue hosts the best horse and rider combinations from January through March during the Winter Equestrian Festival. The Wellington International community is comprised of more than 34 nationalities and offers unparalleled opportunities to leverage international exposure to a captivated and motivated audience.

Wellington International encompasses a total of 111 acres and is easily accessed from three international airports and several major metropolitan hubs. Professional and amateur competition takes place 5 days a week and is always free and open to the public. Wellington International features VIP hospitality, multiple event spaces, and world-class shopping opportunities that make it a place where you can easily work, play, entertain, and escape.
